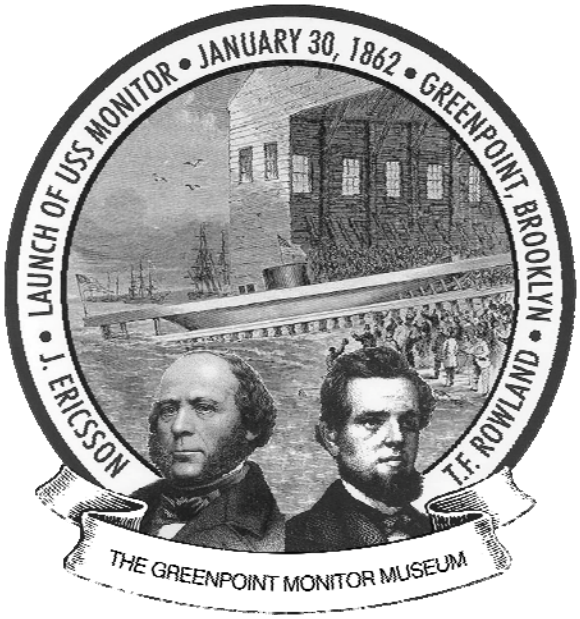
METROPOLITAN WATERFRONT ALLIANCE
CITY OF WATER DAY
"IN YOUR NEIGHBORHOOD"



SATURDAY, JULY 18, 2015
10:00 AM – 6:00 PM

THE GREENPOINT MONITOR MUSEUM and
OLIVER TILDEN CAMP #26
SONS OF UNION VETERANS OF THE CIVIL WAR will be participating in this year's MWA City of Water Day as an

"In Your Neighborhood Site"

on the Museum's land at the Bushwick Inlet at the launch site of the USS Monitor (56 Quay St., enter through parking lot at corner of Quay and West Streets, Greenpoint, Brooklyn, New York)

See NOAA's USS Monitor National Marine Sanctuary's recently unveiled USS Monitor Trail Marker.
Learn about the work of NOAA's National Marine Sanctuary System.
Learn about the USS Monitor, John Ericsson and his work with steam and solar energy.
See Civil War artifacts and solar energy at work on a solar cooker while listening to live Civil War Music.
See the Museum's land, site work that has been accomplished to date and conceptual plans for a restored living shoreline with a shared dock for NOAA's research vessel and other visiting vessels and long awaited community waterfront access.

Contact: Janice Lauletta-Weinmann, The Greenpoint Monitor Museum, 718-383-2637
George J. Weinmann, Commander Oliver Tilden Camp # 26 SUVCW, Past New York State SUVCW Department Commander, 718-383-2637
http://greenpointmonitormuseum.org